Divine Mercy

O greatly merciful God, infinite goodness, all mankind calls out from the abyss of its mercy to your mercy, to your compassion, O God; and it is with a mighty voice of misery that it cries out. Gracious God, do not reject the prayer of this earth's exiles! O Lord, goodness, beyond our understanding, who are acquainted with our misery through and through and know that by our own power we cannot ascend to you, we implore you; fill us with your grace and keep on increasing your mercy in us, that we may faithfully do your holy will through our lives and at the hour of death. Let the omnipotence of your mercy shield us from the darts of our salvation's enemies, that we may with confidence, as your children, await your final coming.....

O Lord, I want to be completely transformed into your mercy and to be your living reflection. May the greatest of all divine attributes that of your unfathomable mercy, pass through my heart and soul to my neighbour.
Help me, O Lord, that my eyes may be merciful, so that I may never suspect or judge from appearances, but look for what is beautiful in my neighbours' souls and come to their rescue.

Help me, O Lord, that my ears may be merciful so that I may give heed to my neighbours' needs and not to their pains and moanings.
Help me, O Lord, that my tongue may be merciful so that I shall never speak negatively of my neighbour, but have a word of comfort and forgiveness for all.

Help me, O Lord, that my hands may be merciful and filled with good deeds, so that I may do only good to my neighbours and take upon myself the most difficult and toilsome tasks.

Help me, O Lord, that my feet maybe merciful, so that I may hurry to assist my neighbour, overcoming my own fatigue and weariness.....

Help me, O Lord, that my heart may be merciful, so that I myself may feel all the sufferings of my neighbour.....

May your mercy O Lord rest upon me.

O Jesus, I want to live in the present moment, to live as if this were the last day of my life. I want to use every moment scrupulously for the greater glory of God, to use every circumstance for the benefit of my soul, I want to look upon everything from the point of view that nothing happens without the will of God. God of unfathomable mercy, embrace the whole world and pour yourself out upon us through the merciful Heart of Jesus.

A Word of Thanks

During Holy Week and Easter, a busy time in the parish and to ensure that everything went well and to enable each of us to receive something from the celebrations, required a huge commitment and involvement of many people and as such I would like to take this opportunity to thank all involved in any way both Milford and Kerrykeel, in the cleaning, Easter displays, rehearsals preparation, arrangements and taking part in all the various ways in the ceremonies. The success of these ceremonies would not be possible were it not for the dedication and commitment of everyone involved, so to each and every one of you I would like once again to offer my sincere thanks and appreciation. Fr. Rory.

Church Collection for weekend were:

Milford: €980.00

Kerrykeel: €130.00

Many thanks for your contributions to the Parish.

Thought of the week

To have God do his own work through us, even once, is better than a lifetime of human striving.
