In Communion

'If there is hunger anywhere in the world, then our celebration of the Eucharist is somehow incomplete everywhere in the world ... In the Eucharist we receive Christ hungering in the world. He comes to us, not alone, but with the poor, the oppressed, the starving of the earth. Through him they are looking to us for help, for justice, for love expressed in action. Therefore we cannot properly receive the bread of life unless at the same time we give the bread of life to those in need wherever and whoever they may be.'

Pedro Arrupe SJ

The Feast of Corpus Christi reminds us of our responsibility to be in communion with the whole body of Christ. There is room for everyone at the divine banquet – especially the poor and the hungry.

In today's Gospel story of the feeding of the five thousand, Jesus refuses to leave anyone hungry, even when his own disciples suggest sending the crowds away. There is more than enough bread for everyone.

Notice that Jesus gives the food to his disciples to distribute among the hungry crowd. He is passing on the responsibility to his followers. It is up to all of us to help those in need. Having received Jesus' body and blood in the Eucharist, we are expected to pass it on – to play our part in feeding the hungry and working for justice.

Decoupage Workshop

Rosnaskill Activity Center
Monday 30th May@7pm
Create something beautiful with the fantastic art of decoupage.
Decoupage is the art of transforming a project into something wonderful with the process of using images, glue and varnish and a very specialised technique.
With this workshop you will be taught the basics by a qualified artist leaving you with two wonderful projects to take home plus the knowledge to take it even further.

Pro-Life Gathering

A really important pro-life gathering to defend the 8th Amendment will take place outside the Dáil on Molesworth Street, Dublin, from 3-4 pm on Saturday, June 4th. The event will celebrate the tens of thousands of people who are alive today because of the 8th Amendment, which is currently under serious threat. The Celebrate the 8th event is possibly the last chance we will have to stand up for Ireland's last remaining protection for the unborn child. Keynote speaker is Melissa Ohden who was born alive after a failed abortion. Among other speakers is Heidi Crowter, a disability rights campaigner from the UK who has Down syndrome. To find out more and to book a seat on a bus please visit www.prolifecampaign.ie or telephone 087 266 8702.
